

Daily Democrat

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—East Side Third Street, between Markets and Jefferson.

Louisville, Ky., SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1861.

Mr. Captain Lowell Rousseau will speak at Shelbyville on Saturday, the 20th. The Union Democracy must turn out in force.

J. C. BRECKINRIDGE—Senator Breckinridge speaks at the Court-house at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

It is reported that Cash, Clay has tendered the Government a company of Mexican veterans.

Charlton Mifflin informs us that a secession flag was raised on the Court-house at Elizabethton yesterday, but the people rallied and took the flag down, and hoisted the stars and stripes in its place.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.—In the Common Council the resignation of John H. Craig as Railroad Tax Collector for the Western District was accepted, and a new election will be ordered.

A resolution was adopted to borrow $50,000 from the banks for the defense of the city was passed. It authorizes the issue of two hundred city bonds of $1,000 each.

An ordinance providing for the defense of the city was passed. It authorizes the issue of two hundred city bonds of $1,000 each.

FABER'S CONCERT.—The queen of the prima donna, our readers should remember, is to give another concert in Louisville on Monday evening next. It will be a superb affair.

Mr. Savan, the conductor who fell from the car near Fort Wayne, the other day, and was injured so badly as to cause amputation of his leg, died on Monday last.

Mr. C. C. Spence will continue his sale of fancy and staple dry goods this morning at Meers Warren & Baker's store on Fourth street. Our lady readers will bear this in mind.

The finest painted pictures ever made in wood are now daily being made by Elrod, and for money than pictures were made for. Go and see Gallerie No. 409 Main street, below Fourth street.

A LOUISIANIAN APPOINTED TO OFFICE—Col. J. H. Helm, of this city, has been appointed Paymaster in the army by President Lincoln.

Major Wood, of the 2d Cavalry, has been ordered to Kentucky on recruiting duty.

To Arms.—We invite attention to the card in another column, of Lovell Rousseau.

W. E. Woodruff and Chas. L. Thomasson.

They propose organizing a battalion of four companies for the protection of our property, our homes and our families.

PROMOTED.—Our good friend Gen. P. Doorn, of the Anzeiger, has been elected Adjutant General of the first battalion of the Home Guard. He will make a worthy and faithful officer, as he goes in extensively for home protection. Adjutant, we salute you.

WORKING MEN, ATTENTION!—We have been requested to call a meeting of the working men of the Sixth and Seventh wards at the City Court room to-night, at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a home guard, to act under the orders of the Mayor of the city in cases of emergency.

SAVING GODS.—We would call attention to the advertisement in another column of the Boston Store, No. 245 Market street. Mr. C. F. O'Donnell is at present in the east, and is forwarding goods daily from the auction of New York. Those wishing to avail themselves of bargains, these hard times, would well bear in mind the Boston store.

MILITARY PARADE.—The Louisville Battalion of the State Guard, Major Hunt, commanding, paraded yesterday afternoon, and made a fine appearance. The Battalion was drilled on the common on Fifth street, beyond Broadway, and attracted a large crowd to witness their evolutions. The Battalion is in excellent discipline, and composed of the very best material.

FIREFIGHT.—Between five and six o'clock yesterday morning, a frame engine house, situated near the Floyd street bridge, in the lower part of New Albany, was destroyed by fire. The house was owned by Messrs. Noyes & Glyne, and occupied by a family by the name of Mason. There was no insurance upon the building. It was valued at $200.

KNOCKERBOKERS.—Cordial, jolly old "Knock" comes to us resolute of many scenes and sunshine—full of genial humor, tender pathos, and sympathy. The Knockerbokers is a full dinner—as many courses as you wish. We have dined off it, and are filled with its good things. It tells us, we regret to say, that John Phoenix—after being spruced up again—had a fall for many months, his finer fight grew dark; and he now is under the care of those who minister to a mind diseased, pluck from the memory a stolid serow, and cast out the written troubles of the brain."

The culture of cotton requires a peculiar combination of heat and moisture, and uniform temperature. Specially, and in Maryland, about 30,000 pounds annually, a small quantity is produced in Sicily and Spain. Astoria Trade produces 300,000 pounds. Syria might produce a considerable quantity; China does not, but consumes it all; India 2,000,000,000. It may be believed, most of which is consumed at home. There are six millions of barrels of oil in the British West Indies where it can be raised.

THE BRITISH RECEIVED FROM THE FRENCH.—The British received from the French a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival of the English."

THE FRENCH RECEIVED FROM THE BRITISH.—The French received from the British a thousand letter writer, in speaking of their country, said: "I am sorry to tell you that the French are still in a condition to do nothing but to wait for the arrival

Daily Democrat

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CLARK'S NEW RESTAURANT.—W. A. Clark respectfully informs his friends in particular, and the public in general, that he has opened a restaurant, on the European style, on the second floor, above our fourth street, between Main and Market, which will be conducted in the most appropriate style, is generally due to the popularity of this kind on the old continent, in consequence of which we will endeavor to give to the customers who will be kind enough to patronize him, all the satisfaction and attention which he required on such occasions. Mons. Francois Gervais, late of Pary's has the immediate charge of the restaurant. The restaurant will be furnished with every delicacy and luxury of the season, such as fresh vegetables, fish, flesh and game, etc.

SPRING STOCK OF MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHES.—J. M. Armstrong, on Main, opposite the National Hotel, is now offering his extensive stock of seasonal clothing for men's and children's wear, embracing all sizes and qualities for ladies from two years to the latest fashions. Also a handsome stock of cloths, cassimines, vestings, for which orders are solicited. Price very low for cash.

FURNITURE AT COST.—J. M. Smith & Bro. are selling out their entire stock of furniture at cost, being desirous of making a change in business. They are offering inducements, at a great sacrifice, to housekeepers to replenish their houses. Call and look for us, before buying elsewhere, at No. 208 Market street, between Second and Third.

Orders for subscription to the Daily Democrat, at 50c per year, W. Barth's feed store, northwest corner of Market and Twelfth streets, and at G. Zaunberg's drug store, southeast corner of Jefferson and Shelly streets, will be promptly attended to by the carriers.

CHOICE PITTSBURG AND POMEROY COAL.

We desire to say to all those with a good article of Pittsburg and Pomeroy coal, that it can always be found at the depot of Capt. W. A. Foster, corner of Jefferson and Twelfth streets.

The man who would have a coal fire, a deer-fisher and a husband, will do well to bear the office in mind when they want good coal.

RETAIL PRICE $1. PER BOTTLE OR SIX FOR $6.

Prudential Office at Amsterdam, No. 6 East Fourth Street, New York.

DR. ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS.

A new and delightful Stomach and Cordial, for all diseases of the stomach, and particularly those of the liver, and the kidneys.

DR. ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS.

DR. ROBACK'S STOM